Amherst Steele	Matt	Rositano	20-11 / 149-57	Southwestern Conference, 10-8	7/4	We should have one of the top defenses in the state. All four infielders (Josh Qualls, Dylan Bailey, Caleb McGee, Graham Solak) have D-1 college potential, the outfield has speed and should be able to track down a lot of balls, and catcher, Eric Ritter has shown a ton of growth. Pitching should be solid, as always, with Justin Hritsko leading the way, and the batting lineup has a lot of depth from top to bottom. If we can find ways to score runs for our pitchers, we'll be real tough.	1. Team Defense 2. Line-up Depth 3. Starting Pitching 4. Speed 5. Experience	1. Central Crossing	Scott	Todd	18-9	OCC Central, 8-7	3/1	We graduated 10 seniors, have 6 returning Varsity players, but only have 3 returning starters back from last years team. Along with only 1 pitcher but he has been our top pitcher for the past 3 years. There will be up to 10 - 12 possible seniors on Varsity this year, they just don't have a whole lot of experience.	Solid #1 pitcher who has signed with Miami, OH. The 3 returning varsity starters will provide valuable leadership with a roster overhaul. I think our pitching will keep us in games.	1. Chillicothe	Tom	Barr	11 - 13 / 70 - 43	N/A	6/6	This is my first year at Chillicothe after leaving Adena High School. Our coaching staff has certainly done things differently than past years at Chillicothe by investing heavily in off season workouts. Actual baseball activities with the players for us started in November with open fields outside and then inside workouts kicking off in early December. We believe this approach will allow us to be competitive in the league and prepare us to compete in the D1 tournament.	1. Pitching, as Chillicothe's core rotation returns 2. Defense 3. Leadership	1. Cincinnati St. Xavier	Bob	Sherlock	13-12; 146-144	5 - 4; GCL South, T 1st	9/5	We will go as far as our pitching and defense will take us. Our starting pitching is very deep with three Division 1 college commits and several returning key starters on defense. Offensively, we return the bulk of our lineup that will provide most of the run production. If our bullpen can step up when needed and our juniors produce offensively, then we'll have a shot at competing for a Greater Catholic League championship and a state title.	1. Starting pitching 2. Team defense 3. Team speed 4. Senior leadership 5. Deep sophomore class	1. Dublin Coffman	Tim	Saunders	16-11/589-393	9-5, T-2nd	2/2	We will be fairly solid but we have many new starters due to a senior laden team last year. Our new guys have been good at every level in the past so I am thinking they will be able to hold their own against most teams.	We have 4 decent arms not he mound and our defense will be strong up the middle. However, we need to get on base to score runs so launch angle swings won't help us. We need to figure that out early.	1. Nathan Kassis, Jr. C 2021, 2019 stats - .351 AVG, 5 2B 2. Connor Cohan, Sr. RHP, Signed with Univ. Findlay (injured most of 2019 so did not pitch) 3. Jaideyn Proper, Sr. 5'10"/165 CF/RHP, Back up last year but will be top player this year. 4. Jacob Rust, Sr. RHP 5'10"/165. Pitched some key inning sin relief as a junior in 2019.	1. Dublin Scioto	Ryan	Longbrake	18-9 / 41-37	OCC Cardinal, 11-4, 2nd	7/3	This will be the first class that has been with our coaching staff for all four years and our philosophy has been fully engrained in our players. Our senior leadership will be key to our success in the upcoming season. We have 9 seniors and 7 of them were varsity starters last year. Last year we lost two key players (Kyron Rogers and Aiden Lao who are both playing at Findlay), but the current senior class is ready to carry to the load. Our record has improved each year, along with our seed, but we have lacked a deep tournament run. That is the goal for our team this year, but it starts by focusing 1 practice and game at a time. I believe our league will be very competitive once again. We have placed 2nd the past two years to a good Hilliard Darby team, but we are looking to push into the top spot this season.	1. Leadership (9 seniors, 7 returning starters) 2. Hitting 3. Starting Pitching (2, 3, 4 pitchers back) 4. Defense (Catcher, and 1 OF spot only areas with new players)	1.
